

In recognition of your generous and extremely well received contribution to the morale of our Nation's warriors, The American Troop Support Team is recognized as the honorary Ambassador of Good Will for an elite Task Force, responsible for illuminating the dark through the light of justice, bringing security to the defenseless, and hunting the enemies of the United States.

This Task Force, composed of seasoned Special Operations warriors from the Navy, Air Force, and Army, will search every corner of the earth in defense of this great nation and bears witness that eternal vigilance is the price of Freedom
